Escorted by Fr Tony Doran, Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Ringwood

In 2020, the Parish of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Ringwood celebrates 100 years of being a living witness to our faith. As part of our Centenary celebrations, you are invited to join our pilgrimage to the Holy Lands of Jordan & Israel. You will have the chance to walk the roads, visit the villages and see the countryside seen by Jesus and his first disciples, in company with his mother Mary. We'll visit and pray in the places so familiar to us from the pages of Sacred Scripture: Bethlehem, Calvary, Galilee, Nazareth, Cana, Caesarea Philippi, Emmaus, the Mount of Olives, Jerusalem. We'll pray in the places where Jesus prayed, we'll celebrate Mass at places as diverse as the Mount of the Beatitudes and the Church of the Annunciation. At Cana, there'll be an opportunity to renew wedding vows. We'll see the archaeological wonders of Petra, Qumran, and the Dead Sea. Please consider extending as we set sail across the Aegean in St Paul's Footsteps to see Ephesus, Patmos, Corinth and Ancient Athens. Come and join us as we walk this pilgrimage of faith with Jesus and Mary!

DAY 16: SATURDAY 19 SEPTEMBER

Cruise, Kusadasi And Patmos

Morning visit to Ephesus in Kusadasi. At Ancient Ephesus we find Immortal relics of the Hellenistic, Roman and Early Christian era. At the archaeological site we will be given a guided tour among the Agora, the Odeon, the Library of Celsus, the marble-paved main Street of Kouretes, the Baths of Scholastica, Trajan's Fountain, the Public Latrines, the Residences of the Patricians, the Prytaneum, the Temple of Hadrian...The Great Theatre, built in the 4th century B.C., could accommodate 24,000 spectators and it is famous even nowadays for its acoustics. The finds from the excavations, which have yet brought to light only 13% of ancient Ephesus, reside in the Archaeological Museum of Ephesus, in the city of Selcuk. During the excursion we will have a chance to do some shopping and see the carpet waving demonstration.

In the afternoon, visit St. John monastery and Cave of Apocalypse in Patmos. The picturesque alleyways wind upwards, towards the Monastery of St. John the Evangelist, founded in 1088 by St. Christodoulos. The visit will open the doors for us to the Monastery's yard, the place where the monks take their meals and the old bakery. Of exquisite beauty is the tour of the Byzantine Church of St. John, which is adorned with a wood-carved icon screen, important frescoes from several periods, with both mosaic and other icons. Our next stop is the small museum which hosts religious treasures of inestimable value, like manuscripts, medieval textiles and sacerdotal vestments. Walking down the stairs, the religious energy that we will experience is soul touching. Behind the chapel of St. Anne lies the entrance to the Grotto of the Apocalypse. We will see the cross engraved by St. John the Evangelist, according to tradition, the triple fissure in the wall of the cave, from where St. John heard God dictating to him the Apocalypse and also the spot where he lay down to sleep. Overnight is onboard our cruise ship. (B, L, D)

DAY 17: SUNDAY 20 SEPTEMBER
Cruise, Heraklion And Santorini

We sail into Heraklion this morning, where we can choose to stay on the ship and enjoy its facilities or join an optional Shore Excursion. Our recommended excursion is the Minoan Palace of Knossos - to see the first European Civilization. In the afternoon we will sail into Santorini with more optional excursions available. Our recommended excursion is the spectacular Oia village perched on the Caldera Rim. Overnight is onboard our cruise ship. (B, L, D)

DAY 18: MONDAY 21 SEPTEMBER
Athens, Delphi, Athens

We disembark from the cruise ship and travel north for a day tour to Delphi. In antiquity Delphi was known as the center or the navel of the earth for it was believed that when Zeus released two eagles from opposite sides of the world they would meet in Delphi. It reached its height in power in the 4th century as the sanctuary to the god Apollo. Pilgrims would gather here to seek advice from the great oracle, Pythia, on various matters including waging wars. We explore the sanctuary by walking up the Sacred Way to see the Treasuries, the Theater and the Temple of Apollo. Visit the museum of Delphi and marvel at the unique collection of artifacts from the excavation, including the bronze "Charioteer" one of the best preserved ancient works of metallurgy. Dinner and overnight is at our hotel in Athens. (B, D)

DAY 19: TUESDAY 22 SEPTEMBER
Athens

Enjoy a full day in Athens, seeing its highlights, visiting the Acropolis as well as the New Acropolis museum. Athens, the capital of Greece, is one of the oldest cities in the world spanning a history of 3,400 years. Home of the great minds, philosophers and teachers of ancient times such as Plato, Socrates and Aristotle, Athens is the birthplace of democracy and the cradle of Western Civilization. A bus tour will guide us through the highlights of Athens; House of Parliament, Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, Presidential Palace, Panathenaic Stadium, Temple of Olympian Zeus, Hadrian's Arch, to lead us to the world renowned Acropolis. We will walk through the architectural wonders of the Golden Age of Pericles; the Propylaia, the Parthenon and the Erechtheion. We walk to Areopagus or Mars Hill, the site where trials were heard before the Council of Elders and where St Paul delivered his speech to the Athenians. Our visit is not complete without a tour of the New Acropolis museum, which houses the findings of the Acropolis of Athens. Dinner and overnight is at our hotel in Athens. (B, D)

DAY 20: WEDNESDAY 23 SEPTEMBER
Athens, Corinth, Athens

Today we travel to the Peloponnese where we cross the Corinth Canal and enjoy a visit to Ancient Corinth. Drive through the coastal road to the Corinth Canal, which separates Peloponnese from the Greek mainland and connects the two Seas, the Ionian and the Aegean. Continue to Ancient Corinth, one of the most important trading cities of ancient Greece dating back to the 6th century B.C. Visiting the archaeological site we will come across the Temple of Apollo, the agora, the sacred spring and the Peirene Fountain. The apostle Paul resided in Corinth for 18 months in A.D. 51-52. Here he wrote the First and Second Epistles to the Corinthians. We shall visit the site of the Bema of St. Paul, where he preached. Time permitting we will visit Epidaurus which was known in antiquity as a healing centre, the place where the god of medicine Asclepius was born and was worshiped. The ruins of the sanctuary include among other things the Temple of Asclepius, the hospice and a stadium. We will visit the Theatre of Epidaurus famous for its astonishing acoustics and one of the best-preserved classical Greek structures still being used for theatrical and musical performances.

Dinner and overnight is at our hotel in Athens. (B, D)

DAY 21: THURSDAY 24 SEPTEMBER
Depart Athens

Enjoy a morning at leisure for last minute shopping and relaxation. This afternoon we will transfer to the airport for our flight back to Dubai and then onto Australia.

DAY 22: FRIDAY 25 SEPTEMBER
Arrive Australia

Arrive back into Melbourne in the early hours of the morning with wonderful memories of a fantastic trip! ** Itinerary subject to change**
